

1. Which 2 intervals create a major triad??
2. Which 2 intervals create a minor triad?
3. What is an interval?
4. What is a triad??
5. Two tones sounding together produce an interval. A chord, however, consists of at least _____ tones at one time played together?
6. Although any three tones sounding simultaneously produce a triad, within the system of tonal harmony triads are constructed of superimposed _____
7. If a triad contains a note that is different to the key signature listed, can it be called a diatonic triad?
8. How many diatonic triads are contained in a major key??

Complete the following questions using the quality of triads using the Major Scale:

9. The triad created using the 1st scale degree is _____
10. The triad created using the 2nd scale degree is _____
11. The triad created using the 3rd scale degree is _____
12. The triad created using the 4th scale degree is _____
13. The triad created using the 5th scale degree is _____
14. The triad created using the 6th scale degree is _____
15. The triad created using the 7th scale degree is _____

Complete the following questions using the quality of triads using a Harmonic Minor Scale:

16. The triad created using the 1st scale degree is _____
17. The triad created using the 2nd scale degree is _____
18. The triad created using the 3rd scale degree is _____
19. The triad created using the 4th scale degree is _____
20. The triad created using the 5th scale degree is _____
21. The triad created using the 6th scale degree is _____
22. The triad created using the 7th scale degree is _____